This programme reflects the usual organisation of the biggest international folk dancing gathering on the continent since its beginnings in the 1960s and will allow the online audience to follow the day to day development of the event with its friendly moments, concerts, balls, official reception and parade at the given times, Central European Time. So come and live the festival as if you were one of the 5000 registered participants.

The Europeade appears thanks to the efforts of a huge team of folklore traditions lovers with no financial support. So come and give a boost to our logo “Unity in diversity” and follow us on our website www.europeade.eu and Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/europeade.eu>.
